WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Walteria Lad Had Tussle With Buffalo, Swears 'Never Again'

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 6-4438

There are lots of stories circulating around town about the various experiences had by Walterianites during these summer holidays, but I doubt that any of them would top the tale told by the Joe Merrills when they returned last Sunday evening from Corona Del Mar where they visited the buffalo farm. Seems that Jo and Marge accompanied by their two sons, Tony and Hanky, had the time of their life at the farm. They rode the miniature train and took in all the sights. Everything ran smoothly till young Hanky decided to crawl under the fence into the buffalo corral. Horrified, people watched as the youngster was sighted by a buffalo which came charging up out of nowhere to pick him up and toss him seven feet in the air. As Hanky landed the animal started to try to stomp him, but by then Joe had recovered from the paralyzing shock and rushed into the corral to distract the buffalo and rescue his very frightened son. It was Hanky's lucky day. All he had to show for his experience was a scraped cheek, bloody nose and a few bruises. This was nothing compared to the state the nervous systems of mom and dad were in. At any rate, it's the last fence Hanky will crawl under for some time to come.

On Friday night, the 5th of August, Mrs. Carrol McFarland of Danaha St., planned a quiet evening at home with a couple of sisters-in-law. As planned, the two, Rose McFarland of Torrance and Pauline McFarland of Los Angeles arrived. But the visitors didn't stop there. To Carrol's surprise, more friends kept arriving. There were Mrs. Lessner of Wilmington, Mrs. Paul Montelth of Lakewood, Mrs. Roy Murphy of Rolling Hills, all trudging up the walk with arms full of packages.

What's the occasion? Seems Rose and Pauline had arranged a surprise stork shower for Carrol. The honoree recovered from her surprise to open the many lovely gifts, two of which were sent by Mrs. Stan Merrick and Mrs. Kenny Ward, who were unable to come. After a gabfest, the refreshments of elaborately decorated cakes done with yellow coconut and miniature birds were served along with ice cream and coffee.

This was a busy weekend for Joyce and Jimmy Williams of Newton St. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowen and their two daughters of Ojai, arrived to spend the weekend. A luscious barbecued spare rib dinner served on the patio added to the enjoyment of their visit. The Bowens left the Williams home about noon on Sunday to go on into Los Angeles. Only an hour or two later Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mobley came in with their family. Once more a spread of barbecue dinner was put out and all gathered round for a pleasant meal. Joy is expecting her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Temple from Chicago, Ill., at any time now. The Temples left Chicago last Tuesday and are motoring to California. They plan to take up residence here in Walteria. Mrs. Temple, the former Mrs. Clara Williams, is known to many here since she lived in Walteria formerly, and still owns her home on Newton St.

Many of you readers will be glad to hear that Mrs. Henry Cunningham, known to all of us as Marie, is recovering nicely after a recent visit to Torrance Memorial Hospital. Marie is proprietor and owner of the "Village Shoppe" on Hawthorne Blvd., and also lived here in Walteria a number of years.

The local WSCS of the Methodist Church announced this week that their annual winter bazaar will be held on Saturday, Nov. 12.

While busily starting plans for this event, which this year is under the direction of Mrs. Robert Allison, the ladies are also getting ready for a rummage sale which they will hold in San Pedro on Aug. 26. Location of the sale will be 1140 S. Pacific Ave. During the month of September the ladies will have their annual "birthday" party and auction, and will also be honored by the presence of Long Beach District President, Mrs. Lawrence Brown at their general meeting. Two of their members, president Bonnie Beck, and treasurer, Mrs. Mae Rampley are spending a week in Redlands at the annual conference training for WSCS members.

The W. A. Stephens of Newton St. are looking forward to a camping vacation visit to San Francisco and vicinity. They came home filled with enthusiasm for hills and forest.

The Roy Cornells, John Chaudanos, and Frank Tenneys are looking forward to a camping trip soon during which time they will visit the Big Sur for several days of sports and relaxation.

The fifth year anniversary of their moving to Walteria was celebrated last Saturday evening by a group of neighbors on Danaha St. Gathering in the Merrill patio the group wholeheartedly set about enjoying the evening of fun and frolic in the Hawaiian style. All the women wore leis of baby orchids and sarongs, while the patio was gayly decorated in garlands of orchids. The men entered into the spirit of the thing with Hawaiian shirts and casual air. A buffet style supper of barbecued meat with all the trimmings added to the enjoyment of the affair. Having fun during the evening were the Joe Merrills, Robert Munns, John Monaghans, James Lamperth, Herbert Johnsons, Al Langstons, Chuck Donzies, George Halland and Carol Evanson. Incidentally, one of the high-spots of the night was an authentic Hawaiian dance done by Marge Merrill and Martha Munn.
